Camp:

Director Hughes stated that we finally got the ok to have all 3 camps at George White School. Registration starts April 15, 2016.

Easter egg Hunt:

We well and Patty Thank Dewey for "bring the Bunny' and the commission for helping set up.

Men's and Women's Softball:

Patty put an ad in the Pascack Press to recruit more player for our summer league. Deb asked Patty to reach out to Westwood to see if we can play against them or have them join or league which runs longer than theirs.

Field Closures

Andy Puller voiced his concerns that most town's fields are open more than ours (rain) and the DPW gets the water off the field so they can play. He also mentioned he is waiting for the DPW to move the clay onto Centennial; it is a short season for the spring ends in mid-May. Abby Lundy stated you can use Centennial for practice if it rains use good judgement. The fields should be covered with the tarps some team have the kids put them on; HBSA has a dolphin roller to remove the water off the tarp. Abby Lundy –Councilwoman and President of HBSA spoke briefly about a test that was going to be done at Centennial by 1st/2nd base regarding the water being moved away from the clay.

Abby invited the Commission to opening day April 16th.

Filed Permit:

Request from Garden State Surge- Andy Puller will help them with the scheduling and they will pay $50 per game, most of the games are away. Vice Chairman Cron signed off on the permit.

Public:

Rich Currans a long time resident (42 yrs.) of the Borough brought in a quilt that his daughter made from old tee shirts from camp and recreation activities. He wanted to see if we can hang it in the Borough hall, Commission thought it was beautiful and stated they didn't know where it could go. A suggestion was made to check with the library. Patty asked him to leave it with her and she would see where it could hang.

Sports Agreement:

Councilman DeRosa was called and put on speaker phone to address the commission regarding the sport Agreement. He stated he met with our Insurance company and football, they have questions. He is meeting with Hoop next Wednesday and has spoken to Lacrosse they have questions also before they sign. Soccer has not signed off. He said the Mayor wants it signed by all before the end of May. If they do not sign they are not able to use the fields with no insurance.

Senior Van:

Out of service for 2 week, getting new brakes Administrator ask the DPW to use a new vendor for parts that takes 3-4 day to receive. This vendor is less expensive than our other
