RE: Extension for POD on property at 159 Riverdale St

Dear Robin,

We would like to request for an extension on our POD in our driveway. Enclosed is a check for $50.00

We had a flood in our basement due to a water heater malfunction that resulted in 4-5 inches of water; the repairs took longer than anticipated due to finding of asbestos tile which delayed the whole process then Mold began to grow so that delayed us even further. My Husband and I are both physically challenged; my husband has MS and I have 4 herniated discs and spinal Stenosis so everything takes longer for us. I hope you consider that in your decision.

I did my best to fill out the Planning board application but wasn't sure about a lot of the areas because we are not building anything.

I truly hope you consider our request,

Sincerely,

Ali and Dom Ginestra

CHECKLIST
VARIANCE APPLICATION

The following documents are required with the application for a variance and must be attached to the completed application form.

1. A completed application form. [Obtain a form from the Building Department]
2. A copy of the Land Use Officer's denial of your building permit application. This is usually the letter refusing to issue you a building permit. [Obtain this from the Building Department]
3. A copy of the tax map indicating the subject property. [Obtain this from the Building Department]
4. Sixteen (16) copies of the ground and typical floor plan of the existing building, and proposed additions or changes with all necessary measurements, as were submitted to the Land Use Officer.
5. Sixteen (16) copies of a current property survey of the premises in question with all relevant proposed dimensions certified by a licensed Professional Engineer or Land Surveyor in the State of New Jersey. The surveyor or engineer only must show the proposed changes (i.e. new addition, deck, shed, fence) to your survey, with relevant dimensions.

The property owner or architect may not change, add or adulterate the survey in any manner. The survey should include a bulk table showing the existing and proposed zoning requirements for the subject property. All sixteen (16) copies of the survey must have a raised seal by the surveyor or engineer's signature.

6. A certificate from the Tax Collector stating whether any taxes or assessments for local improvements are due or delinquent. [Obtain this from the Tax Collector]
7. Submit the filing fee as required by the Hillsdale Land Use Ordinance.
8. Statement of reasons for seeking the variance. [This may be a separate attachment to the application form]
9. Photographs of the property in question and of all adjacent properties. The applicant's name and the property address should be marked on the photograph.

Failure to submit all of the above documents will cause your application to be deemed incomplete for consideration by the Board. This will delay your application hearing and cause you additional expense for the Board's professionals to perform additional reviews your application.

RE: Extension for POD on property

Mr. and Mrs. Ginestra,

Steve Loesner, Hillsdale Zoning Officer, issued you a notice to remove your POD because your permit has expired. In order to retain the POD, you must apply to the Planning Board for an extension.

I am attaching a copy of the Planning Board Application. Once the application is complete, please bring the application along with a check for $50 made out to the Borough of Hillsdale.

Failure to apply for an extension will result in a summons.

Sincerely,

Robin Hamman
Deputy Secretary to the Hillsdale Planning Board
