RESOLUTIONS

PZ-10-22 Blocks 1210 & 1211 Lots 1 & 2
131-145 Patterson Street and 60-77 Brookside Place
Resolution 2023-09
Patterson Street Urban Renewal LLC
Site Plan

- Mayor Ruocco commented that the reference to the 20 parking spaces should make it clear that these are 20 parking spaces to be allocated in the garage and are in addition to the approximately 20 on-street parking spaces discussed by the developer.
- Ms. Kates requested confirmation that 67 electric vehicle spaces would be allocated in the garage. Mr. Statile confirmed that this is correct.
- A motion to approve the resolution with the above amendment was put forth.

OPEN SESSION

- Updated Escrow Fees – Ordinance 23-08 (A)
The approved, updated escrow fees were distributed to the Board members for their review. No further action is required.
- Planning Board Application Updates
Board members asked that Date Received, and Check Date be added to the first page of the application. This information will be completed by the Planning Board Deputy Secretary once the application is submitted with required documents and fees. Per Ms. Stinely, the updated application does not require council approval and can be changed administratively once the PB approves the changes.
- Mr. Riordan requested that the PB page on the Borough website be updated with the 2023 member names.
- Ms. Kates asked Councilman Escobar to provide updates concerning PB activities to the Council on a regular basis.
- Comments provided by the PB concerning the AINRh will be reviewed by the Mayor & Council in June.
- A bill has been introduced by the state legislature clarifying the ability of PB to broadcast meetings via Zoom or other media. The bill has not been passed yet.
